WELCOME to the JULY/AUGUST issue of LINK

Since the last edition of LINK, reports of open conflict erupting between Israel and Iran have increased the concern caused by ongoing conflicts in the Middle East and Ukraine, as well as the unpredictable impact of American global policies. How do Christians, who believe in a God of love and peace, with good purposes for his world, make sense of all this?

The Bible teaches that our Creator is good, wise and loving, and He's working out a plan for the world that leads, through faith in Christ, to a future renewing of this world. The concept of "heaven" as an airy-fairy afterlife with nothing much going on, doesn't come close to doing this justice; the biblical promise is of a New Creation, just as physical and fulsome as this world, but with all the flaws and failures washed away; heaven on earth, if you like.

But it is also relentlessly honest about the human propensity to hurt one another and the wider world. This is encouraging, because it means Christian faith is not mere wish-fulfilment; rather it recognises there is a serious problem – summed up in the concept of sin – but that God has sent someone to defeat this problem, in His Son.

Like all good heroic tales, there are ups and downs and each of us has a heroic role to play, whether that be sharing the good news of Christ with others, or standing for what is right in a difficult season – perhaps by writing to your MP or donating to a good cause, or simply by holding on to the hope that Christ presents, which we strengthen in our daily life of prayer and Bible, and joining with God's people in services of worship. How might you express hope in Christ today?

God bless,

Paie

*Thank you to Jackie Brown for our cover picture this month
- a beautiful birthday celebration at Exbury, by all accounts!*

At the recent APCM, Jane Stocker was elected to serve as Churchwarden in our churches. Jane has kindly written this piece to introduce herself to those of us who do not yet know her well. Thank you Jane.

I grew up in Chiswick, West London, the youngest child of three and attended church with my parents, in fact my father was Churchwarden for many years at Chiswick Parish Church. I attended Sunday School, sang in the Choir, was a Brownie and Girl Guide, and church activities were the main focus of our family life. It wasn't until I was a teenager however, that I really understood what it means to be a Christian, and made a fuller commitment to Christ, whilst attending a youth group at a local Baptist Church. This became my spiritual home until I moved to Hordle, following my marriage to Duncan in 1993, when we started attending All Saints'.

We enjoyed bringing up our two daughters in this beautiful part of the world, appreciating access to the sea and the Forest having grown up in a city. Abi and Cathryn both attended the church, Tiptoe Butterflies and Hordle School and are now established in successful careers in the Civil Service.

I have recently retired from full time work which, for the last few years, has been as manager of a Local Authority team dedicated to helping young people into employment or training. I originally trained as a Careers Adviser, working in London for 15 years, and then in various educational roles since moving to Hampshire. The focus of my work has always been to empower people to achieve positive outcomes, and this is reflected in our family life too in supporting family members who have a disability.

I am looking forward to the new challenge and opportunity of being Churchwarden and am grateful to others more experienced than me for sharing their time and wisdom as I learn the various aspects of the role.

Men! Do you love a cooked breakfast?

Why not come and join us once a quarter for a superb breakfast and an interesting talk?

At the Men's Breakfast on 17th May Chris Sinkinson gave a talk about Biblical Archaeology. With only 45 minutes to cover the talk and time for questions it is fair to say that he could only scratch the surface.

He related the physical archaeology to what can be explained in the hieroglyphics that have been found.

Watch out for the date of the next breakfast!

Blister packs are back!

Not the painful variety - but blister pack recycling.

Please place empty packs in the white containers at All Saints' and in St. Andrew's Hall Porch.

Plastic and foil are separated and the plastic goes to make playground equipment.

Thanks to Helen for organising this for us.

Hordle and Tiptoe Carers' Friends

Latest News

On Wednesday 21st May we held our first meeting in the Memorial Hall. We welcomed local carers who were curious to find out all about us and were joined by Cllr Fran Carpenter who wholeheartedly supports our initiative. Earlier we met members of the Parish Council who were equally encouraging.

We understand that caring for someone can be a real challenge both physically and emotionally, especially at low moments. These meetings are being crafted with that in mind, providing a little oasis once a month where carers can enjoy personal quality time, just for themselves. The pressure and demands of being a part-time or full-time carer can sometimes seem daunting so we would love those attending to feel they can gain knowledge and friendship in the brief time we have together each month.

We have an information hub where carers can find out about the support that is available locally for themselves and for their cared-for person. If a carer is facing any specific challenges we can signpost to charities, health professionals and other experts. Those attending may simply want to come along to enjoy friendly company with people who understand their situation.

Looking ahead, we will invite speakers along to share their expert knowledge. We are encouraging all attendees to contribute their ideas and requests via our suggestion box.

There are plenty of flyers available at the church or from the church office, so please do share the news of this new group with any neighbours, family, friends or colleagues who may benefit. We meet on the 3rd Wednesday of each month from 1.30 – 3pm.

For more information please contact Tony on 07981 293990, email carersfriends@outlook.com or call the church office on 01425 626565.

APCM Report 2025

At the meeting of the parishioners on May 11th, June Bailey and Jane Stocker were elected as Churchwardens. Phil thanked Duncan for his eight years of unstinting service as Churchwarden. At the Annual Parochial Church meeting, the following were elected to serve for three years on the PCC: Gill Morris, Mark Strode, Mary Moynagh, Liz Wyatt. Tony Edmonds was elected to Deanery Synod.

This year the Electoral Roll was renewed and now has 117 names on it, 66 people living in the parish and 51 outside the parish.

In his Treasurer's report, Tony Edmonds explained he was working to simplify the account structure, and to balance our books. The statement of Financial Activities shows Incoming resource is up on last year BUT in January, the PCC acknowledged that we are likely to see costs increase by some 5%. We are monitoring energy usage, but we need to see an increase on last year's income between £6k to £8k to remain in balance. Across the first 4 months, our general expenditure has gone up 6%, but Praise God, our giving and your generosity has pushed up the income by 12% – we are in a good place, but not complacent!

In his Fabric report, Duncan highlighted many areas where the fabric of our buildings has been maintained and improved by specialist trades people together with a host of volunteers.

In his Chairman's report, the Vicar addressed the two trials currently running at All Saints, as recommended by the services Review group. The evening service is to be reviewed by the PCC in July, along with the trial to move the 10.30 service to the hall for an extra Sunday each month.

He highlighted the benefits Anya has brought and said 'One year on it is a joy to see how well she has taken responsibility for the various ministries within our church, as well as the local schools.' He highlighted the Holiday Bible Club in February. Anya's funding comes solely from the ringfenced pot that is due to run out two years from now so the PCC will be looking at all avenues to enable Anya to remain with us.

Simon Hones joined in the last year as Associate Vicar and Phil has been greatly encouraged by his ministry wisdom as they have met together over the last 8 months.

In the Vision Review process three projects were identified. Last autumn we purchased a new sound system, primarily for use in the memorial hall, but also mobile. We have also committed to a scheme of minor works to improve the décor in All Saints Foyer. Also nearing fruition is the renovation of the kitchen at St Andrew's Hall.

Phil finished his report with all that the church does in promoting contact with our local community. He thanked those who run all the varied activities.

Mary Moynagh (PCC Secretary)

Margaret Honeyman on her 102nd birthday

She was delighted when two women from the Fannys (Special Operations Executive) came down from London to visit her. Margaret worked for this organisation during the war - very important and secret work.

Margaret herself told us her story for an article in LINK, printed some two years ago in celebration of her 100th birthday.

When Pope Francis died, Justin Welby wrote: 'Francis was someone who made people want to know God - and God's love - as he did. He was not perfect, but he was passionate for God.'

Could this be said of us?

It Lies In Wait

Suppressed in the depths, it lies in wait.
Some trigger; a kind word, song, image,
number ... anything
Can bring it welling to the surface
Where it is poured out in sobs and tears
Released afresh as only pain can be.

Undiminished, and, only with a struggle, brought back into check
Acknowledged and eventually returned beneath
To sit out life's daily pattern ... for a while.

Hidden away, it changes shape and substance perpetually.
Sometimes a hard small nugget seated in the heart,
Sometimes swelling to seemingly vast proportions
That surely cannot be contained within the cavity of the human chest.
Sometimes sinking to fill the whole frame, as if with lead.

It waits, safe in the knowledge that it can never be extinguished
Never entirely set aside, never dismissed.
It waits, to be viewed with a different eye, perhaps.

One that cherishes the memories, that recalls the laughter
And accepts the bad moments alongside the good
As two sides of the same precious coin.

Until at last it may bring comfort as well as sorrow
Despite its heart-rending title
Grief waits, to be seen as part of love.

Anne McMurtry 2015

Thank you Anne for sharing these very personal thoughts with us. She wrote this 'non-poem' following the death of her son some eleven years ago, and offers it now in case it helps anyone else who is going through similar feelings.

Tim Cosby, our Bible Society representative, has recommended an interview from the Canadian Bible Society on Youtube (link below.) It is an inspiring interview given by an amazing man.

Anatoliy Raychynets, the deputy Bible Society Secretary in Ukraine, recently spoke about life for a military pastor during the war. To date over 1.2 million Bibles have been distributed by Bible Society. Anatoliy spoke of how his clerical collar opens doors to enable him to reach out to people. Almost everyone has been touched by the war.

His two children spend more time in bomb shelters than in class. His life involves often visiting the morgue and he notices that a majority who come to the morgue have a very small hope that it is not their son/husband/brother – but too often it is. Yet here the Bible became alive. When a parent has had her only son killed ‘what can I tell them’ he thinks. He asks God to give him the words and tells her – she has a heavenly father who loves her - and suggests that he read to them from the Bible. From Psalm 23 - the Lord is my shepherd – touches her heart and she breaks down in gratitude to him for sharing that passage and caring.

Before the war people didn’t have Bibles but are seeking something spiritual now. On trains carrying troops, volunteers are distributing Bibles and discussing their faith.

He cites examples of people’s needs – sometimes they need a hug, sometimes it is words and sometimes it is a Bible. He talks of vans arriving in war torn areas – some bring bread, while another brings boxes of Bibles.

Anatoliy says his strength comes from Bible reading and prayer. He has never seen such a need for Bibles since the Soviet Union collapsed in the early 1990s. He cited an example of a soldier he met who said he has never been so happy and peaceful even in the trenches since finding faith. Even his family notice the difference.

You can see the complete interview at:

Plant for Pollinators

URGENTLY!

What are pollinators?

Bees, butterflies, moths, insects, beetles, birds, bats...

Why are they so important?

They facilitate the transfer of pollen from the male part of the flower (anther) to the female part (stigma). Pollination is crucial for plants to produce fruit, seeds, vegetables, nuts, and more plants.

Pollinators have seriously declined - why?

Causes include: loss of suitable habitat, effects of climate change, use of pesticides, change of land use,

This decline is bad news for us and the eco system. We can help to put this right by planting plants loved by pollinators in our gardens:

lavender, single-petaled zinnias, echinacea, cornflowers, cosmos, aster, buddleia, allium, borage, sunflower, honeysuckle, oxeye daisy, native bluebell, foxgloves...

To help breathe life into God's Creation, and for the sake of our food source, let's get planting for pollinators!

Eco Church

When we really love people, we must MEET them where they are - not where we think they should be.

We must give them what they NEED - not what we think they need to have.

We must RESPECT who they are - not what we think they ought to be.

That's LOVE - nothing more, nothing less.

"I HAVE CREATED ONE
BEAUTIFUL WORLD"...

LIVE SIMPLY SO OTHERS CAN SIMPLY LIVE!

...God said. "Take care of it." Unfortunately, to sustain our current lifestyles, we need 1.8 Earths!

EARTH OVERSHOOT DAY represents the date when humans have used up Nature's annual budget of ecological resources. In 1970 Earth Overshoot Day was 30th December! This year, Earth Overshoot Day is 24th July. For the last five months of the year we will further deplete our long term resources, contribute to extreme weather events and the decline of food productivity.

No one needs to glue themselves to airplanes, or motorway bridges. But if every member of the church family commits to review how they live, little by little we can push back Earth Overshoot Day. Each small change makes a difference: using less water, buying fairly traded products, reducing flights abroad, choosing locally grown food, recycling at charity shops, and needing less "stuff".

There are also great charities we can support working for the environment e.g. Tearfund, RSPB, National Trust, CPRE and A Rocha's Eco Church. Let's also encourage friends & neighbours to join us. But first, a simple prayer:

Father God, what changes do you want me to make to the way I live?

At the end of time, God will ask, "How did you care for my Creation?"
What will our answer be?

H.E.

When we live in faith, fear loses its power to control us.

*The King marks 80th anniversary of Mission Aviation Fellowship and celebrates 50th anniversary of Papua
New Guinea's independence*

The King has visited the humanitarian air operator, Mission Aviation Fellowship (MAF), to celebrate their 80th anniversary. Whilst visiting the charity, His Majesty unveiled their new aircraft that will deliver aid to remote regions in Papua New Guinea and had the opportunity to meet members of the PNG community in celebration of their 50th anniversary of independence.

MAF, believed to be the world's largest humanitarian air operator, was founded at the end of the Second World War by a group of RAF officers. They wished to use the flight skills they had acquired in wartime to build a world in peace.

Today, MAF flies to 14,000 remote destinations to deliver support to isolated communities including access to medicine, technology and education.

His Majesty also unveiled the new Cessna aeroplane which will deliver aid to remote regions in Papua New Guinea. The plane has been modified to withstand some of the world's most challenging flying conditions.

Papua New Guinea is now MAF's busiest programme, and is recognised by the government, international aid agencies and local communities as a vital, safe service and a reliable way to travel. MAF has made a conscious commitment to the long-term development of the country by employing and training around 100 local staff.

Remember, being happy doesn't mean you have it all ...
it means you are grateful for what you have!

THOUGHTS FROM MY GARDEN

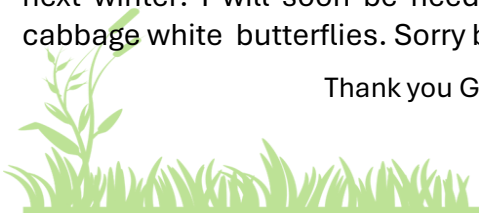

Did you enjoy the sunny weather we had a few weeks ago? I did. I kept working in my garden and welcomed the rain when it arrived. Watering from a hose does not have the same effect as rain; everything seems to perk up and grows better after rain!

We have started picking mange tout peas and there are flowers on the French and runner beans, so they will soon start producing. The chard and kale are getting big enough to give a few leaves but I must think of the best way to cover them to keep the pigeons off.

The strawberries did well in the greenhouse, and I did not share them with the mice or birds! I have been hoping to make friends with the robin. He does pop down to see me, but does not stay long. I wonder what they are feeding their young on as I am not finding many worms in the soil. I think the worms go deeper to find damp soil. The fat balls have been popular though!

I must plant the leeks out soon and the purple sprouting to grow on for next winter. I will soon be needing the bags to protect them from the cabbage white butterflies. Sorry butterflies!

Thank you God for the beautiful display of blossom.

Hand bells

Our hand bell group already have a number of bookings for December!

To enable us to honour these we need some more ringers.

We need to ease the pressure and spread the load.

There is no need to read music - we play by numbers.

Most of our bookings are afternoon ones at day centres and residential homes, so our practices are also in the afternoons, usually on Mondays once or twice a month.

If you would like to meet the group and see what we do, or would like more information, contact Faith and Tony on 01425 611947

Year 6 Leavers Hoodies

To celebrate the end of the Year 6 SATs, a week in which each of our Year 6 pupils gave their tests their everything, it was a delight to see the children enjoy a surprise treasure hunt, arranged by our amazing Team PATCH (Parents and Teachers in the community of Hordle), with the prize being the ever popular Year 6 Leavers Hoodies!

We love this time of year, seeing the joy and excitement (and some relief!) on the children's faces as they relax in to their final few weeks with us at Hordle Primary.

A huge thank you to Team PATCH for their hard work once again, organising both the hoodies and this fun event for our children to enjoy.

Can you help us?

Team PATCH are looking for raffle prizes for our upcoming Summer Fair on Friday 11th July. If you are a local company/business and would be happy to donate a raffle prize, please contact Gemma at patchcontact@yahoo.com or by emailing adminoffice@hordle.hants.sch.uk.

All money raised by PATCH is invested in the enrichment of our pupils' lives at Hordle. This year, funds raised are being used to replace our very old adventure playground and we can't wait to see our new equipment later this term.

Any and all donations will be gratefully received and will help in making a difference to our children's schooling adventures.

The Quiet Revival

Gen Z leads massive rise in Church attendance

Church attendance has risen by 50% over the last six years.

The findings come in The Quiet Revival, a survey commissioned by the Bible Society and conducted by YouGov.

- Over 2m more people go to church now than six years ago (particularly in Roman Catholic and Pentecostal churches.)
- 16% of 18 – 24-year-olds are attending church.
- More men go to church than women.

Church, Civic and Charity Leaders come together to pray for the City of Southampton

The first Lord Mayor's Prayer Breakfast in five years has been held in Southampton. It was held in the Mayor's Parlour in the Civic Centre and brought together leaders from churches of all denominations, council leaders and local charities to pray for God's blessing on the city, its residents and decision makers.

Lord Mayor of Southampton Cllr James Baillie said, "I think it's a very important opportunity to get Christians in the city together to pray for the city, particularly near the start of the civic year, and especially here in the Civic Centre, which is a place where decisions that affect hundreds of thousands of people are made. As a Christian, I believe it's important that prayer should be a part of civic life, and to ask God to help the decisions we make."

Bishop Rhiannon said, "I just think it's wonderful to get together all these church leaders and others including people from the council. We're all here at the invitation of the Lord Mayor to pray for the city and for the wider world today. It's just great that people are meeting together today. I think God loves it and something special happens in the heavenlies."

Help hospice care live on

Could you pledge a gift in your will to ensure Oakhaven Hospice is here to care for and support local families in the future?

Oakhaven is at the heart of our community, each year providing compassionate care for thousands of patients and specialist support for their loved ones. Oakhaven is here for everyone in the New Forest, Totton and Waterside, from the diagnosis of a life-limiting condition to being there for loved ones in bereavement.

For many of us, a hospice will touch our lives, whether for ourselves, a loved one, or a friend, providing comfort, dignity, and expert care through life's most challenging times. But this support wouldn't exist without you. Oakhaven relies heavily on charitable donations to keep its doors open.

A gift of any size will help to ensure Oakhaven is here to help people you love receive end-of-life care.

Hospice care is free at the point of use. But, unlike the NHS, it is not fully state-funded. Currently, just 11% of Oakhaven's annual running costs are covered by the government. With rising costs and growing demand for hospice services, these gifts are more important to us than ever.

A gift in your will can help make sure Oakhaven will be here to offer compassionate, free care to thousands of people each year, now and in the future.

To find out more about leaving Oakhaven a gift in your will, visit oakhavenhospice.co.uk/legacy, or call 01590 677773.
