WELCOME to the OCTOBER edition of LINK

This month's copy lands in the middle of the harvest season, as churches and schools up and down the land play host to services of thanksgiving for the abundance of the land that we receive each year.

In today's world we can eat tomatoes in December and parsnips in August if we want. Our connection to the earth that bears its fruit in season has been severed and along with it our sense of dependence on the God who "gives showers of rain to all people, and plants of the field to everyone." (Zechariah 10:1)

But it really is an everyday miracle that we are able to throw some seed in the ground and watch it grow, all by itself for the most part, until it produces food of many kinds and qualities.

And we are not in control of this process. Anyone who has watched Clarkson's Farm will know the real anxiety faced by farmers, after they have worked jolly hard all year, as they watch the sky warily to see if the rain will come when it needs to and hold off when it is not wanted.

So let us take time this month to reflect on and enjoy the provision we receive from our Creator God and give Him our thanks once again.

In Christ,

Phil

Harvest Gifts for Those in Need

Our Harvest Festivals this year will be on October 20th at All Saints' and October 27th at Tiptoe when we will be bringing our gifts to be donated to the New Forest Basics Bank. Items particularly needed include tinned food (meat, vegetables, stews, custard and rice pudding) as well as coffee, sugar, powdered milk, household essentials (washing up liquid, all-purpose cloths and toilet rolls) and toiletries (shampoo, toothpaste etc)

At Hordle there will be a box in the entrance hall throughout October - bring your gifts in advance if you wish.

Please remember in your prayers those struggling to feed their families.

Thank you.

Simon Says ...

Over a third of British people place themselves in a category labelled “Fuzzy Faithful”.

The key factor in the definition is that they do not act on their beliefs. Like the existence of Patagonia, they hold some things to be true, but only in an intellectual way that has absolutely no affect upon their lives. They may believe that Jesus rose from the dead, but make no allowance in their daily conduct for such belief. There has been a massive increase in such deluded thinking this century.

Fuzzy Faith is mainly a product of our extreme individualistic culture and postmodern thinking, where things that don't affect me are not “real” in any meaningful way. It may be safe to believe in this way, but is it intellectually honest? Does it matter how I treat things I believe? Most of all: is it true? Unless I plan to take a holiday in Patagonia, what does it matter whether I believe it exists? What happens if there is an Aid Appeal for people in Patagonia after some natural disaster?

The only faith that counts is one that I can count on with my actions. So a Fuzzy Faith about Jesus will be useless when we find ourselves facing Judgement Day.

St James tells us that ‘faith without actions is dead’ - in other words, it is not faith at all. He goes on to emphasise that what we believe must be borne out in our attitudes and our lifestyles. Jesus taught and demonstrated this message. Morals are key aspects of this, because they demonstrate our beliefs of what is right and wrong. Do your morals reflect your belief in God? If not, then one or other is wrong.

Southampton has a new Bishop!

‘It has been announced by Downing Street that the Venerable Rhiannon King, currently Archdeacon of Ipswich, is the bishop-designate of Southampton.

The suffragan bishop of Southampton is a key leadership role in the Diocese of Winchester covering the six deaneries of Southampton, Bournemouth, Eastleigh, Lyndhurst, Romsey and Christchurch.

She will be consecrated as bishop on 18th October and welcomed formally at a service in Southampton, before moving to the city to begin her new role. She will be the 17th Bishop of Southampton, following the Rt Revd Geoff Annas who has been acting Bishop since November 2023, and the Rt Revd Debbie Sellin following her appointment as Bishop of Peterborough.

Rhiannon’s ordained ministry to date has spanned the dioceses of St Edmundsbury and Ipswich, Birmingham and Ely. She was ordained deacon in 2000 and worked first in a team ministry in the market town of Huntingdon, followed by being the Rector of a multi-parish benefice just outside Cambridge. She then became Director of Mission for the Diocese of Birmingham which involved leading their Growing Younger project and helping to implement their ‘Transforming Church’ vision.

She is married to Philip, a physicist and photographer based in Oxford, and together they love to travel in the UK and further afield whenever possible.

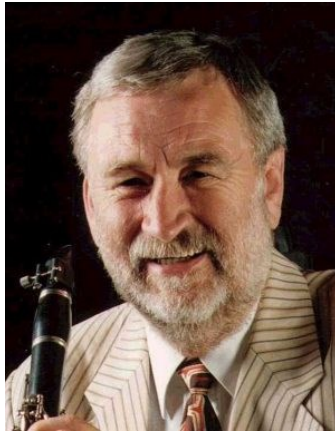

Rhiannon grew up in Oxford and is from a strongly Welsh family. She has loved visiting nearby Hampshire over the years and has felt a strong call to this particular role. Her experience working in Ipswich and Birmingham will be invaluable as she moves to serve Southampton, Bournemouth and the nearby towns and villages in the south of the diocese.’

In a short video filmed for the diocese, Rhiannon says, “I love adventures and I look forward to creating some new adventures with God and with you. I have seen God at work so much and know that God can do far more than we can ask or imagine so I am putting my hand in God’s, trusting Jesus for everything and hope to spend most of my time encouraging others to do the same.”

DOES ANYBODY REMEMBER?

Thirty years ago last 2nd September, a band called The Real Ale and Thunder Band played Jazz at Vespers in All Saints Church to a full house! A member of that band was Chris Walker, who is coming to play on 25th October with his Swingtet Jazz Band (see previous page).

We first went to Jazz at Vespers in November 1984 at Downton Church, near Salisbury, which we enjoyed so much that we went to several more before arranging for the Band to visit Hordle. All Saints' Church was then supporting the hospital at Mukinge, Zambia where a new children's ward was about to open and we were able to send them £400, after deducting expenses.

I am sure the 25th will be an entertaining evening, joining in the singing to hymns like The Old Rugged Cross and Swing Low Sweet Chariot, which I hope are played! It would be good to see a full hall as we had all those years ago in the church. See you there!

Daphne Vaughan

BLASTS FROM THE PAST ...

Forty years ago, LINK - and indeed the village of Hordle - had a very different appearance. In the October 1984 edition of LINK (price 15p), we saw the following advertisers ...

Lavender Farm Dairy - in Lavender Road, from where battery-operated milk floats used to deliver around the village

R & C Millar - Family Butcher, in Ashley Lane

Hordle Bakery - Ashley Lane - on the site of the present Argyle Court (next to the W.I. Hall)

Hordle Radio & Electrical - Ashley Lane - also on the site of Argyle Court

Hordle Strawberries - from the former nursery site opposite All Saints' Church, now Nursery Close

Gordon Pomeroy School of Tennis - Vaggs Lane

Hordle Stores - Everton Road

Spar Foodmarket & Off Licence - the former Co-op and now Nisa shop

Quality Foods and Chemist - from the present Hordle Pharmacy site

A GRAND TEAM EFFORT ON 3RD SEPT...

Wild areas need management for native flora and fauna to flourish. So, the Autumn offers the opportunity for a full body workout over four (ideally dry) mornings to cut and rake our meadows. Many hands wielding a range of tools are essential to complete the work. Pippa kept morale high with plentiful scones, malt loaf, teas and coffees!

Simon was taught to scythe as a child. You can see why we gave him plenty of room to manoeuvre!

Thank you: Alan & Anne, Douglas, Tony, Duncan, Angus and Simon for making a grey, overcast morning productive & fun!

Tiptoe Primary School is unique and special in many ways. Staff, governors, parents and children work together to make a welcoming and friendly community. The school has a strong family like atmosphere which is evident as soon as you walk through the door. We pride ourselves on knowing all our pupils well. We value each child and as a result of this ethos our children attain high standards academically and a sense of themselves, well equipped for success in their future.

We provide a happy, stimulating environment, where children are eager to learn because they feel involved, interested and can see a purpose for their work. The school is committed to providing a full and balanced curriculum which encourages children to enjoy their learning and develop positive attitudes about themselves whilst caring for others. Learning is at the heart of our school and we aim to ensure that all our children recognise and value their achievements. Our expectations of children are high. We expect excellent behaviour and a high level of independence and self-confidence. It is our aim to create enthusiastic learners who look forward to coming to school and relish challenge.

The school aims to keep parents informed of their children's progress and the life and work of the school. Parents are encouraged to work with the school, to take an active interest in their child's education and become involved in school life. Parents are always welcome in school and many help with class activities, reading with children, educational visits and fundraising.

Our website will give you some information about our school. Please visit it and then come to see our school in action!

THOUGHTS FROM MY GARDEN ...

I have just had the best start to a day! I got up early and took myself to Keyhaven. The sun was up, there was no wind and the sea was very calm. I parked amongst the camper vans and walked along the sea wall to Keyhaven harbour. There were dog walkers about and a few runners. Absolute bliss! I have a new mobile phone with a bird song recognition app and as I sat on the sea wall with the sea one side and fields the other, it registered 10 different birds from swallows to a meadow pipit, even a chiffchaff. The noisiest were two little egrets fighting over fishing rights!

Further along, I watched nine men get into their canoes and paddle away, obviously a regular routine. There were also some paddle boarders about. Such a peaceful scene. It made me thank God that I am still able to drive and walk.

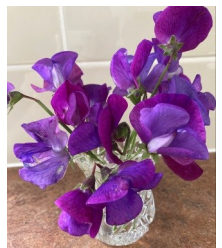

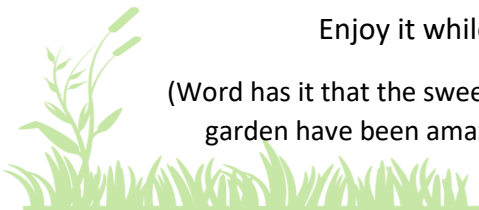

I check for the hedgehog some evenings but I don't often see it. A few nights ago, I checked before going to bed and found two hedgehogs feeding. One was full size and I think probably the smaller one was the original one. Has word got around that food gets put out and will I find more hedgehogs feeding? Considering I have not seen a hedgehog for some years and that they used to be plentiful, I will welcome them, as long as they don't get on the road.

The vegetables are beginning to come to an end now; the climbing French beans have been good and the sweet corn is still plentiful. The winter crops are all looking good - we shall be fine come Christmas when the sprouts will be ready.

I do hope this sunny weather lasts a bit longer - I shall be getting up early again!

Enjoy it while it is sunny!

(Word has it that the sweet peas in this writer's garden have been amazing all summer! Ed)

Pat Cassandro wanted to share her testimony in case it is helpful to others ...

Christmas Day is coming ...

For me every day is Christmas Day as I celebrate Jesus. He was willing to leave His father in Heaven, be born in a stable and live and die in this broken, beautiful world.

I experienced the amazing love of Jesus in January 1984. I was bringing up my children on my own as my marriage had failed. My daughter had health issues. I was a very angry, determined person trying to cope with whatever came my way in my own way.

Then I met a shop assistant who was very different from anyone I had previously met. I said "I can see you are deeply in love"; she replied "Yes, I encountered Jesus. He changed my life. He takes care of everything".

A few months earlier I had been "taken" unwillingly to a Luis Palau mission. Sadly I could not relate to anything that was going on. I was living in darkness.

A lady told me afterwards that I appeared sad. Yes, I was. My dad had died and my cat had leukaemia. In three days he was to be put to sleep. The lady said, "I am so sorry about your dad. We can pray for your cat." I was very agitated. "God can do amazing things in three days." I wanted to hit her!! We didn't take the cat to the vets because my children couldn't cope with it.

Returning to my story, I called a relative saying I wanted to become a Christian. She sent a Christian friend to see me. A dear lady called Mary was at my door almost immediately. My attitude, unlike hers, was far from gracious. "You say whatever. I will say "Amen.". I muttered. She prayed for me.

When I opened my eyes, I saw my cat had survived. My life was such a mess. I cried out, "What kind of God are you to bless such an aggressive person as me". His love filled me to overflowing. I became a new person. I read the Bible. He has remained my faithful Saviour, my constant Companion, my King, my Brother, my Friend. He is so compassionate and has blessed me in so many ways.

Life is challenging but depending on Jesus makes the impossible possible. My love for Jesus grows and grows. I just love to worship Him.

John 15:5 NIV says 'apart from me you can do nothing.'

If you don't know Him, do ask someone to pray for you. We are not meant to do life in our own strength.

(Thanks to Pat for writing this - at a difficult time for her and Sol. Ed.)

No.2 in Angie's series on the Church's Calendar

Christmas in October?

By the time that you read this, shops and media will have started the annual push to persuade us to spend money on things that we do not need, to buy gifts for family and friends, which, if we are honest with ourselves, cost too much and may not even be liked. Somehow we are dragged into the buying frenzy.

Christmas originates from both the pagan and Roman cultures. The Romans celebrated two holidays in the month of December. The first was Saturnalia, which was a two-week festival honouring their god of agriculture Saturn. On December 25th, they celebrated the birth of Mithra, their sun god.

However, Christmas is celebrated now to remember the birth of Jesus Christ, who Christians believe is the Son of God. The name 'Christmas' comes from the Mass of Christ. A Mass (sometimes called Communion or Eucharist) is where Christians remember that Jesus died for us and then came back to life.

When autumn has given way to winter, when snow may cover the ground, and lights twinkle from house to house, you know Christmas is coming. Decorated Christmas trees appear everywhere, presents crowd for space under the tree and families come together for a turkey feast. Christmas is one of the most important Christian and cultural holidays of the year, but what is the true meaning of Christmas?

Is it the gifts?

Is it the annual economic boost?

Christmas is a time of spiritual reflection on the important foundations of the Christian faith. It's also a celebration. Christmas is much more than simply the celebration of Jesus' birth. It reminds us that amid all the joyful customs and celebrations of Christmas, we can see the truth of the Word (Jesus) made flesh for our salvation as Jesus, God's son come to earth to share his love and forgiveness for everyone.

The Bible foretells His birth hundreds of years before, fulfilling prophecies. The Christmas story is recorded in Luke 2: 4-19.

May the joy of the angels, the eagerness of the shepherds, the perseverance of the wise men, the obedience of Joseph and Mary, and the peace of the Christ-child be ours this Christmas. Amen

Samaritan Purse Shoe boxes

Reading of the plight of children in Sudan sheltering under bushes, children in Gaza and the Ukraine in refugee camps, children in Afghanistan under Taliban rule, just to mention a few, tears at our heart strings.

But we can bring a little joy to some of them by filling a shoebox with toys, scarves and hats, stationery and other treats.

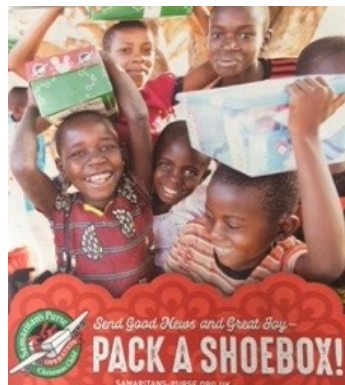

Please consider this seriously. Our church has been very generous in the past and I trust will be again this year. Boxes and leaflets will be available in both churches and I have a supply of tennis balls and kitted hats to start you off!

If you feel you are not able to fill a box but would like to either donate money, soaps, stationery gifts, toys, please do so and I will make up a box for you.

(Milford Cards and Gifts have a supply of toys especially for shoe boxes)
Boxes will be collected during the first fortnight of November .

Thank you in anticipation.

Gill Morris

Administrative Support

Church Office

We are looking for a volunteer Bookings Manager to manage internal and external hire of the church buildings at Hordle and Tiptoe churches.

This will mostly be carried out online at home, dealing with prospective hirers, administrating bookings, and invoicing hirers. It is envisaged this would take on average 3 hours per week.

For further information and a role description, please contact the PCCsecretary@hordleandtiptoechurch.org.uk

On 8th September the BBC Songs of Praise came from Crathie Church in the Cairngorms, a little church much beloved by our Royal family.

The Rev Ken Mackenzie closed the programme with this blessing -

Dear Lord

Be a bright flame before us ... A guiding star above us

A smooth path beneath us ... A kindly shepherd behind us

Today, tonight, and for ever more. Amen

Reminiscences of lives well lived

Many wonderful people have worshipped at St. Andrew's over the years. Two such people were Olive and Dennis Bournon. Dennis worked as an Anglican priest in the north in Liverpool and at other churches in the south. He and Olive retired to New Milton and came to worship at St. Andrew's.

Dennis was a serious and studious man, always prepared to serve. He was the Administrator for the New Milton Christian Housing Association in Whitefield Road, where retired missionaries / priests and other Christians can find self-contained accommodation. In the nineties he also helped David Price at St Andrew's, where David was House for Duty minister. Dennis worked as finance officer when funds were raised to build the church hall. He organised things, paid the builders, and generally did the paperwork needed. When David retired to Ledbury, Dennis took over for some months and also ran the weekly Bible study in the hall. He never skimped on his preparations!

Olive and Dennis were a great team and their contributions, including Dennis ringing the bell-call to worship on Sundays, cannot be overstated. Dennis liked poetry. He once told me he had a poem he liked very much and wrote out a copy for me (see next page). He never said who wrote it and I have found no trace of it online. Perhaps, reader, you know who wrote it??

Who is God?

Who are you, Lord?
 The theologians seem to know - they analyse the texts,
 Define and pigeonhole you,
 But I am not convinced they know it all.
 There's always more: your Spirit ranges free,
 Along Your path, not theirs,
 I've found out sometimes - painfully.

How to describe you, Lord?
 What name to give that says it all,
 That holds the truth of who YOU are?

YOU are the many-splendoured Lord
 Who dances joy into my life
 Whose touch gives strength to walk and run
 The one who lights my life with love.

Sometimes I see you clear.
 The problem is that in the blessing of your nearness
 I'm tempted to relax and think I've got it all
 With nothing more to learn.
 But when I've used up all my words-I have a lot of those-
 I'm still no nearer the truth of who YOU really are.

There's so much more beyond the limits of my tiny mind.
 Surprises still in store.
 And when I've sailed the sea of my perception,
 Come to the edge of all I know - or think I know,
 YOU come again in ways I never thought to see,
 And I am left in awe and wonder.

And, through it all,
 My questions and my search for seeming certainty,
 One thing I know and cling to -
 YOU are the one who holds me in the cradle of your love
 Renews me and gives me strength to face another day.

Share your story

Archbishop Justin Welby is coming to the Diocese of Winchester on 25-27 October to join us on our journey of faith and mission. For one weekend, he will be walking alongside us ...

- Sharing his story about the life-transforming love of Christ
- Hearing our story about the faithfulness of God in this place
- And encouraging us to see a vision of how these stories fit within God's big story

The focus of the weekend will be on "sharing your story". Archbishop Justin will be visiting a number of different places across the weekend, sharing his own story, listening to others' and being a part of the extraordinary work already taking place across the Diocese that seeks to draw everyone into the bigger story of God.

During the weekend, the Archbishop will be out and about in the Diocese ..

Friday 25th October

The Archbishop will visit a missional community in Southampton before moving to Bournemouth to visit various church initiatives. After Evening Prayer in Bournemouth, the Archbishop will be at Winchester Cathedral, and then out on the streets with the Winchester Street Pastors.

Saturday 26th October

After leading Morning Prayer and Eucharist at Winchester Cathedral, Archbishop Justin will visit Winchester Prison and the Mission to Seafarers at Southampton Docks. His evening will be spent on board the Life Bus in Andover.

Sunday 27th October

After Morning Prayer at one of the prayer hubs in the New Forest, the Archbishop will speak at a Q&A event at Beaulieu Motor Museum. He will visit a community lunch project in Southampton, and then Romsey Deanery, before attending a service on a housing estate in Basingstoke.

We are encouraged to pray for Archbishop Justin on this busy weekend.

Hordle Gardening Club

Do you:

- Have an interest in plants and gardens?
- Like growing flowers, fruit and vegetables?
- Want to learn more?
- Want to meet new people and have a fun, sociable evening out?

Do come along to one of our meetings and see if you would like to join us. We have regular talks on a variety of subjects, our own Show, trips out to visit other gardens, and social events too.

Meetings are on the 4th Friday of each month (except August and December) at the Hordle Pavilion. Doors open at 7.00pm and the talks start at 7.30pm.

Guest attendance: £3
Annual membership: £8

REPAIR

CAFE

NEXT REPAIR CAFÉ IN 2024:

SATURDAY 12 OCTOBER

ST. SAVIOUR'S CHURCH HALL
BROCKENHURST

Help us reduce the number of items going to landfill and help yourself by continuing to use your things!

Have you got something that just needs a minor repair to keep it in use? Maybe a frayed buttonhole but you don't know how to mend it? A small electrical item that needs a new switch? A kitchen tool that needs its handle mended?

Have a coffee and cake while you're there and have a chat to the repairers...

A donation towards our running costs would be most welcome!

Looking forward to seeing you on Saturday 20th April!

Bring your used Stamps to Hordle Pavilion
Saturday morning Café or to either of our Churches

Collect stamps for RNIB and make a difference to blind and partially sighted people.

Be a stamp collector for a good cause!

The RNIB will turn them into funds to help people living with sight loss.

Important! Trim stamps leaving approx. 1cm border around all sides!
